On June 2, 2001, the 6th annual Tony Awards Party will be held at the Henson Studios (formerly the historic Chaplin owned Hollywood Studios) and will be benefiting THE ACTORS' FUND OF AMERICA and AID FOR AIDS.

Each year this highly anticipated function features a cocktail party and silent auction, followed by dinner and a live feed of the Tony® telecast from New York. After the telecast, a live auction is held with a presentation of the award.

The Julie Harris Award is for lifetime career achievement, and has been presented to Julie Harris, Gwen Verdon, Charles Durning, Tyne Daly and Lauren Bacall. When Miss Harris became the first recipient, the event committee unanimously voted to make her the namesake for the award. We are proud to announce that the Julie Harris Award 2002 will be presented to Miss Carol Channing.

The event is attended by about 500 guests, and during the commercial breaks in the telecast, the host or hostess introduces other Tony winners and luminaries in the audience.

Please feel free to call for any further information regarding announcements and press coverage.
